"BOOKS! more wonderful than the wishing-cap of the Arabian Tales, transport instantly, not only to all places but to all times. Books can conjure up to vivid existence all the great and good men of antiquity; and, for individual satisfaction, can make them act over again the most renowned of their exploits. Orators declaim, Historians recite, and Poets sing: in a word, from the Equator to the Pole—from the beginning of time until now — by Books, as by miracle, the reader may be where he pleases." HAZLITT.
